Here's a visual of the temple exterior (typical Kerala/Tulu-style with tiled roof and entrance):

Greatness of This Temple

Dedicated to Lord Sharabheshwara (fierce Sharabha form of Shiva — part-lion, part-bird, eight-legged mythical beast), believed to be more powerful than lion/elephant and capable of calming divine fury.

The temple offers protection, courage, relief from hardships, and pacification of negative energies/anger.

Devotees seek blessings for strength, overcoming obstacles, and spiritual peace.

Its riverside location enhances serenity, making it a spot for meditation and devotion in Tulu Nadu's Shaiva tradition.

Legends and History

The main legend ties to Puranic lore: Lord Sharabha (Shiva's avatar) pacified Lord Narasimha's rage after he slayed demon Hiranyakashipu, restoring cosmic balance (as per texts like Sharabha Upanishad).

The temple is said to be over 800 years old (per Instagram mentions of "800 ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಇತಿಹಾಸ"), with roots in ancient Shaiva worship in coastal Karnataka.

No specific local founding legend is detailed publicly, but it's part of Dakshina Kannada's ancient temple network.

Architecture of Temple & Deities

Traditional South Indian/Tulu Nadu style with Kerala-influenced tiled roof, wooden elements, and simple sanctum. The main deity is Lord Sharabeshwara (fierce Shiva form), beautifully adorned during poojas/festivals. Sub-shrines include Lord Ganesha, Goddess Durga, and Naga idols, creating a harmonious spiritual ambiance.

Sub-Deities

- Lord Mahaganapathi (Ganesha shrine — featured in processions).
- Goddess Durga.
- Naga deities (serpent gods, common in coastal Karnataka for protection).

Daily Rituals and Poojas and Their Charges

Timings: Morning 6:00 AM – 12:00 PM; Evening 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM (may vary on special days).

Daily rituals: Standard Shiva poojas — abhishekam, archana, aarti, naivedya.

.Basic darshan free; offerings like flowers/coconuts nominal.

Specific charges: Not published online (rural temple norm). Expect ₹20–100 for basic archana; inquire at the counter or via FB for archana/abhishekam rates.

Special Poojas and Rituals and Their Charges?

Special sevas on request: Abhishekam (milk/honey), Rudrabhishekam, homas, or vow-based poojas for protection/health.
During Amavasye (new moon) and special days, enhanced rituals.
Charges: Likely ₹100–500+ for specials (similar to regional temples); contact temple for exact/current list.

Festivals

Sharabeshwara Jatre (annual festival): Grand celebration with devotion, chariot processions (e.g., Chandra Mandala Ratha mentioned), rituals, music, cultural programs, drawing devotees from nearby villages.

Mahaganapathi Shobhayatra: Processions highlighted.

Atidonji Koota and Amavasye events: Special gatherings, poojas (Aati/Amavasye common in region for protection).

Other: Regular events like Dwadashi poojas or community programs.

Facilities for Devotees (Like Accommodation, Etc.)

Basic rural facilities — no on-site guest house mentioned. Parking available; clean premises. During festivals, temporary stalls for food/water. Devotees often stay in Bantwal/Mangaluru. Respect traditional dress; photography may be restricted inside.

Donation Info and Bank Account Number, Etc.

Donations via hundi (offering box) or direct to temple committee.

No public bank details found; for large donations/receipts (80G eligible?), contact via email sarapadytemple@gmail.com or FB. Managed by local trust/committee.

The annual festival (Jatre) of the Sri Sharabheshwara Temple in Sarapady is traditionally held during the Magha Maasa (usually falling in February or March).

For the year 2026, the key dates for the annual chariot festival (Rathotsava) and related rituals are as follows:

Main Jatre Dates (2026)

The festivities typically culminate around the Magha Shudda period.

Based on the Hindu lunar calendar for 2026:

* Main Festival Period: Expected between February 18 and February 22, 2026.

* Maha Shivaratri: February 15, 2026 (Special poojas and night-long vigils are held just prior to the main Jatre).

* Peak Day (Rathotsava): Traditionally, the "Gende Seve" (fire-walking) and the Chariot pulling occur towards the end of the 5-7 day festival cycle.

Key Rituals During the Jatre

* Dhwajarohana: The hoisting of the temple flag, marking the official start.

* Bali Utsava: Daily processions of the deity around the temple premises.

* Gende Seve: A powerful ritual where devotees walk on hot coals (check local temple timings as this is a highlight).

* Rathotsava: The grand chariot street procession.

* Avabritha Snana: The holy dip in the Nethravathi River, which flows right next to the temple.

Important Note for Devotees

* Crowds: The Sarapady Jatre is a major local event.
Expect heavy crowds, especially during the evening cultural programs (Yakshagana) and the final Rathotsava day.

* Annadhana: Massive community feasts are organized for all devotees during these festival days.

* Verification: Since specific ritual timings can be adjusted by the temple committee based on the precise Thithi (lunar day), it is highly recommended to contact the temple office or the chief priest, Sri Vijayakrishna Aithal, a few days before your visit.
